

- Exciting and entertaining live performances
- Critically acclaimed recordings
- Chart-topping original songs

The GRASS CATS have it all and are ready to bring it to your festival or event next year.

With over a decade of performances and seven very successful CD's, The GRASS CATS are ready to expand their playing area and bring their lively foot-stomping fiddle and banjo music, bluegrass classics, tight vocal harmonies and acapella-style gospel quartets to your event. Mix in their "top of the chart" original music and down home humor and you'll have a performance your audience will not soon forget.

Songwriter and mandolin player Russell Johnson started The GRASS CATS with original members Tim Woodall (banjo) and Chris Hill (fiddle) in 1997. Russell's soaring tenor compliments guitarist Steven Martin's richly textured country-tinged lead local. Lloyd Herring, the CATS bass player or Tim add the third part harmony that is such a big part of the CATS vocal arsenal.

Equally comfortable performing at bluegrass festivals, corporate events, street fairs, Arts Council and Parks and Recreation presentations, as well as private events, they are the perfect choice for your next entertainment need.

IBMA World of Bluegrass Showcase

"The people in eastern North Carolina know, and LOVE, Bluegrass music. Our performance brought in the passionate fans, as well as our season ticket holders; many had never attended a bluegrass concert. Everyone, and I do mean everyone, left happy! The GRASS CATS are extraordinary musicians! If that weren't enough, they brought in great humor, variety, and a show that brought the audience to their feet. We will have them back!"

Sheila Martin, Dunn Center at NC Wesleyan

"The GRASS CATS are a fan favorite ranking high on guest feedback. A real crowd pleaser!"

Kris Ziegler & Barb Krumm, Ocean Lakes Premier Bluegrass Weekend

"In addition to sounding good in the studio, The GRASS CATS consistently deliver top rate live performances to capacity crowds at PineCone sponsored events. They are a sure bet for a good time to be had by all."

William Lewis, PineCone

"The Grass Cats are consummate professionals. Our crowd thoroughly enjoyed the music and humor on stage. They made themselves available to the crowd both during intermission and after the concert. They also received the first standing ovation and curtain call of our summer concert series. We would love to have them back again in the future."

Tara Gallagher, Garner Parks & Recreation

"The GRASS CATS are consummate professionals ..."
